

Detroit Free Press
January 24, 2006

Can you hear them?

As the Free Press reported last week, the Maxim magazine party will transform the Max M. Fisher Music Center's Orchestra Hall into a rock opera. The party, dubbed "Rock City Opera," will be Feb. 4. The over-the-top décor and entertainment were inspired by Kiss, the Who's concept album "Tommy" and David Bowie's glitter rock era.

The VIP, invite-only crowd will get to see the 2007 Cadillac Escalade and XLR, taste signature cocktails provided by Absolut, gamble at a Rock City Casino and get decked out in rock T-shirts and roller skates by Reebok. About 1,800 guests are expected.