

Paris is a flirt!

Paris Hilton hit the VMAs without her fiancé, Paris Latsis, but she wasn't without a date. Record producer Scott Storch, who's working on the heiress' album, went with her to the awards — and more. During a party at Setai on August 27, "Scott was kissing the back of her neck while she sat on his lap," claims an onlooker. Adds an insider, "They were all over each other all weekend." Paris Hilton's rep says Scott is just a good friend of the star and denies any problems between Paris and her fiancé, although an insider suspects the couple is fighting about where to live — Paris doesn't want to move to her beau's native Greece.

Carmen Electra's wild striptease

Carmen Electra and the Bombshell Babes, her new dance troupe, debuted a steamy number at the Stuff party.